PREFACE

By-Laws made under and in terms of the provisions of Section 19 of the General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University Act No. 68 of 1981, as amended.

These By-Laws may be cited as MPhil/ PhD By-Laws of the Faculty of Graduate Studies, General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University (KDU) pertaining to the award of the degrees of Master of Philosophy (MPhil) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) and shall come in to force with effect from 01.01.2022.

General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University offers MPhil and PhD degrees through two Windows, namely, Window 1 and Window 2, and this document presents By-Laws pertaining to both.

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

These By-Laws shall be applicable to all local students (military and civil) and foreign students who register for the Degrees of Master of Philosophy (MPhil) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) at the Faculty of Graduate Studies of the General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University (KDU).

KDU offers postgraduate research degree programmes leading to the award of MPhil and PhD in two different windows to meet distinct requirements based on the academic background of the candidates.

1.1 METHODS OF ENTRY

1.1.1 WINDOW 1

Due to the nature of responsibilities and commitments connected with their working environments, some of the service and civil candidates may need an additional exposure to improve their knowledge in Research Methodology. An opportunity exists for such candidates to develop their research skills by following course modules on Proposal Writing Techniques and Research Methodology. The Research Methodology module comprises an Introduction to Research Methodology, Scientific Communication and Statistical Techniques for Research, which are designed to upgrade the knowledge and skills of the candidates in addition to the guidance provided by their supervisors. The course also consists of a course module on National Interests conducted by eminent resource persons to upgrade their knowledge on national development. These three compulsory course modules are considered as a prior necessity for the candidates who register through Window 1, and they shall follow them while engaging in their Research Projects.

The candidates selected under Window 1 are initially given a provisional registration during which they are expected to learn the foundations to develop a research proposal, with the guidance of the supervisor. They shall present their proposal before a Proposal Evaluation Committee, and upon the acceptance of the proposals, they will be registered for the degree programme.

1.1.2 WINDOW 2

Some candidates may already have prior experience in research and have already identified the supervisors and the area of research. For example, those candidates who have secured research grants by themselves or by their supervisors fall under this category. These candidates have already gone through the phase of proposal development, and hence are not required to follow the prerequisite courses mentioned under 1.1.1 above. However, the supervisors may recommend them to follow certain modules of window 1 and any other courses arranged by the Faculty of Graduate Studies, based on their individual requirements during their research work.

1.2 TYPES OF CANDIDATES

1.2.1 A FULL-TIME CANDIDATE

A full-time candidate shall be a person duly registered for an MPhil/PhD degree programme, who is engaged in research and related activities during the entire normal working hours of the week. Employed full-time candidates are required to obtain leave of absence from their places of work. However, he/she may undertake academic work or official duties at the place of employment during the period of postgraduate studies, with the permission of the supervisor(s) for a maximum of 6 hours per week.

1.2.2 A PART-TIME CANDIDATE

A part-time candidate shall be a person duly registered for an MPhil/PhD degree programme, who engages in research and related activities during a part of the total working hours of a week for his/her research work as acceptable to the Faculty Board, Faculty of Graduate Studies. A part-time candidate shall be present at the university for a minimum period of time as prescribed by the main supervisor and the relevant Board of Study and approved by the Senate and at particular hours prescribed by the supervisor(s).

1.2.3 A SPLIT-SITE CANDIDATE

A split-site candidate shall be a person duly registered for an MPhil/PhD degree programme at KDU who is permitted to conduct research in a foreign university. The foreign university shall also have shared ownership of intellectual property rights over the degree or the products of the MPhil/PhD research and its outcomes. The candidate is responsible for securing funds required for foreign studies.

1.2.4 CHANGE OVER FROM FULL-TIME TO PART-TIME AND VICE VERSA

If a student wishes to change the type of registration, he/she may submit a letter of request to the Dean, Faculty of Graduate Studies through the supervisor/s and the Chairperson of the relevant Board of Study. However, the decision over the proposed change shall become effective subject to the recommendations of the Board of Study and the Faculty of Graduate Studies and the approval of the Senate. On such occasions, the Senate, as recommended by the Board of Study and the Faculty Board, Faculty of Graduate Studies, shall decide the minimum and maximum period of the degree programme, in accordance with 1.3.

1.3 DURATION OF DEGREE PROGRAMMES

The duration of study required for the degrees as a part-time or full-time candidate and the maximum time period allowed for completion is shown in Table 1.

	Degree Programme	Minimum Duration	Maximum Duration
01	MPhil – Full-Time	02 years	05 years
02	MPhil – Part-Time	03 years	07 years
03	PhD – Full-Time	03 years	07 years
04	PhD – Part-Time	05 years	09 years

3. APPLICATION AND REGISTRATION PROCEDURE

3.1 APPLICATION PROCESS UNDER WINDOW I

3.1.1 SELECTION OF CANDIDATES

- 3.1.1.1 Applications will be called for by means of an advertisement published by the Faculty of Graduate Studies, KDU.
- 3.1.1.2 Application forms of MPhil or PhD programme may be obtained from the Faculty of Graduate Studies, KDU or downloaded from its website.
- 3.1.1.3 The research fields available at KDU will be published in the Faculty of Graduate Studies, KDU web page as a guidance.
- 3.1.1.4 Duly completed application forms shall be submitted to the Assistant Registrar, Faculty of Graduate Studies on or before the deadline given.
- 3.1.1.5 The applications shall be shortlisted by the relevant Board of Study and the shortlisted candidates will be interviewed by an Interview Panel. The interview panel consists of the Vice Chancellor, the Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic), the Dean-Research, the Dean - Faculty of Graduate Studies, the Dean of the relevant Faculty and the Chairperson of the relevant Board of Study.
- 3.1.1.6 The list of selected applicants will be forwarded to the Board of Study to recommend supervisors. However, candidates are encouraged to nominate potential supervisors for their research. The Board of Study will obtain nominations from the relevant faculties, from among the potential academic staff members, to supervise the shortlisted applicants.
- 3.1.1.7 The Board of Study shall forward the list of selected applicants, and the names, affiliations and CVs of recommended supervisors, to the Dean faculty of Graduate Studies to obtain the recommendation of the Faculty Board. These applicants will be provisionally registered as MPhil or PhD candidates under Window I. The Faculty of Graduate Studies will submit the list of selected candidates for the given year under Window 1 along with the details of the recommended supervisors to the Senate for approval. No student will be provisionally registered without a suitable supervisor being appointed.
- 3.1.1.8 The candidates will be notified of the Provisional Registration by the Assistant Registrar of the Faculty of Graduate Studies with a copy to the relevant supervisor(s).

3.1.2 PROVISIONAL REGISTRATION

3.1.2.1 Provisional Registration is valid only for two (02) years.

3.1.2.2 With the Provisional Registration, it is compulsory for all candidates (full-time or part-time) to register through Window 1 and successfully complete the course modules on Proposal Writing Techniques, Research Methodology and National Interest within the stipulated period.

3.1.2.3 Within the provisional registration period, candidates shall submit the research proposal, developed in accordance with the recommended format, to the Dean, Faculty of Graduate Studies, through the relevant Board of Study, with the recommendation of the supervisor.

3.1.2.4 It is compulsory for the candidates to have completed the course module on ‘Proposal Writing Techniques’ with 80% attendance before the submission of the proposal.

3.1.3 EVALUATION OF RESEARCH PROPOSAL

3.1.3.5 A candidate earning below 65% in the proposal evaluation shall be given two more attempts to resubmit a Research Proposal to the PEC within the period of provisional registration.

3.1.3.6 The decision on the acceptance of the proposal on the recommendations of the evaluation panel will be forwarded by the relevant Board of Study to the Dean, Faculty of Graduate Studies for obtaining the recommendation of the Faculty Board, FGS and approval of the Senate.

3.1.3.7 If the candidate fails to submit the proposal or unable to secure required marks to pass the proposal evaluation within the stipulated period, the candidate's provisional registration shall be cancelled.

3.1.3.8 The proposal evaluation process should generally be completed within three months from the date of submission of the proposal.

3.1.4 REGISTRATION

3.1.4.1 Once a candidate passes the proposal evaluation, he/she shall be given full registration status (hereinafter referred to as registration) and the date of registration shall be as defined under 3.1.5.

3.1.5 EFFECTIVE DATE OF REGISTRATION

3.1.5.1 When the candidate passes the Research Proposal Evaluation, the effective date of registration shall be the date of Provisional Registration.

3.2 APPLICATION PROCESS AND REGISTRATION UNDER WINDOW II

3.2.1 Application and registration are open throughout the year.

3.2.2 Application forms for MPhil or PhD programmes can be obtained from the Faculty of Graduate Studies, KDU or downloaded from its website.

3.2.3 Duly completed application forms with the title and a proposal of the intended research project with the recommendation of the supervisors shall be submitted to the Assistant Registrar, Faculty of Graduate Studies.

3.2.4 The applications shall be screened for eligibility criteria of the candidates and the suitability of the supervisors, by the Board of Study.

3.2.5 The proposal of intended research will be evaluated by the Board of Study. The Board of Study shall send the proposal to two subject experts within or outside the KDU for evaluation, based on which the decision on the acceptance of the proposal will be made.

3.2.6 The Board of Study shall call the candidate and the supervisors for any clarification required regarding the application and proposal of intended research.

- 3.2.7 The Board of Study may suggest additional co-supervisors with the concurrence of the appointed supervisor(s) when necessary.
- 3.2.8 The recommendation of the candidature by the relevant Board of Study, shall be forwarded to the Dean, Faculty of Graduate Studies to obtain the Faculty Board recommendation and Senate approval for Registration under Window II.
- 3.2.9 The candidates will be notified of the Registration by the Assistant Registrar of the Faculty of Graduate Studies with a copy to the relevant supervisor(s), which should generally be within three months from the date of submission of the application.

4. SUPERVISORS OF RESEARCH DEGREES

- 4.1 There could be more than one supervisor; one main supervisor and co-supervisor/s, if necessary. The eligibility criteria of supervisors are given under 'GUIDELINES FOR MPhil AND PhD DEGREES.
- 4.2 It is mandatory to have at least one supervisor from KDU.
- 4.3 The main supervisor shall be a specialist in the major discipline of the candidate's area of intended research.
- 4.4 If the research work is to be carried out in an external institution, there could be a co-supervisor from that institution.
- 4.5 If the research is a split programme with a foreign university, there shall be a supervisor from the foreign university who shall collaborate with the local supervisor(s).
- 4.6 If a supervisor is unable to perform his/her supervisory duties for a period exceeding three months, another supervisor shall be nominated for that period by the supervisor to cover-up the supervision during his/her absence with the recommendation of the relevant Board of Study and the Faculty Board of FGS and the approval of the Senate.
- 4.7 If there is any dispute between the student and the supervisor, the relevant BOS will recommend prompt action to be taken, to the Faculty of Graduate Studies for approval by the Faculty Board and the Senate.

5. SCHEDULE OF FEES

- 5.1 The schedule of fees for the degree programme shall be as laid down by the Faculty of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Senate and the approval of the Board of Management, KDU.
- 5.2 The applicable schedule of fees for a particular candidate shall be as determined at the time of provisional registration of the candidate.
- 5.3 The registered candidates are required to renew the registration on a yearly basis paying the registration and any other relevant fees until the completion of the course.

6. PROGRESS EVALUATION

- 6.1 Candidates shall submit the progress reports prepared according to the prescribed format once in every six (06) months, with the recommendation of the supervisors, through the relevant Board of Study to the Dean-Faculty of Graduate Studies.

- 6.2 The Relevant Board of Study shall review the progress of a candidate based on the recommendation made by the evaluators.
- 6.3 For candidates registered through window I, the same evaluators appointed for the candidate's proposal evaluation will serve as the evaluators for the evaluation of progress reports.
- 6.4 For candidates registered through window II, two evaluators (At least 01 external) shall be appointed by the Faculty of Graduate Studies for the evaluation of the progress reports on the recommendation of the relevant Board of Study and the Faculty Board of the Faculty of Graduate Studies, and with the approval of the Senate.
- 6.5 The candidates shall also be called in for presentations on the progress annually to an evaluation panel. There shall be a minimum of two (02) such progress presentations for MPhil and three (03) progress presentations for PhD.
- 6.6 This panel shall comprise two Evaluators, Chairperson of the Board of Study, Dean-Research and Dean, Faculty of Graduate Studies. The panel will be chaired by the Dean, Faculty of Graduate Studies or the Chairperson of the Board of Study. Supervisors will be present as observers.
- 6.7 The status of the progress of the candidate with the recommendations of the evaluation panel will be forwarded by the relevant Board of Study to the Dean, Faculty of Graduate Studies.
- 6.8 A recommendation regarding a cancellation of Registration of a candidate due to continuous unsatisfactory progress will be made after a detailed discussion with the supervisors and the evaluators. The final decision will be made by the relevant Board of Study and forwarded for the approval of the Senate through the Faculty Board, Faculty of Graduate Studies.

7. UPGRADING FROM MPhil TO PhD PROGRAMME

- 7.1 With the recommendation of the supervisor(s), a candidate shall submit the prescribed application for an upgrading from MPhil to PhD not before the completion of one year from the date of passing the proposal evaluation along with a progress report, to the Dean- Faculty of Graduate Studies through the relevant Board of Study with the recommendation of the supervisors.
- 7.2 The relevant Board of Study shall review the request by the candidate based on the recommendation by the evaluators and the candidate will be called in for a presentation before the progress evaluation panel.
- 7.3 Based on the recommendation of the evaluation panel, the relevant Board of Study will forward the suitability of the candidate to be upgraded for registration for a PhD degree to the Dean, Faculty of Graduate Studies for recommendation of the Faculty Board of Graduate Studies and approval by the Senate.
